5. [redacted] accompanied [redacted] Office of Security, who completed the necessary briefing and indoctrination for security clearance of [redacted] Chief Counsel, and [redacted] Professional staff member, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee. See journal item of 28 May.

6. [redacted] Mr. Robert Smart, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee called and advised that 10:00 a.m., Monday, June 3, is available for the monthly Agency briefing. After checking with the Director's Office, advised Mr. Smart that the Director would not be available on Monday. Mr. Smart suggested that since he had no other time at present he will check again the first of the week and see what can be worked out.

7. [redacted] Mr. Russell Fee, Consultant, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee, called and advised that Gen. Robert H. Booth, Chief of the Defense Atomic Support Agency, testified before the Committee yesterday but that questioning of the General on his prepared statement will not be undertaken until the Committee resumes hearings Monday or Tuesday of next week. This information was passed to [redacted] office which advised that that Office would not be sending observers to any more of the disarmament hearings. This Office will continue to obtain a transcript of the hearings.—

9. [redacted] Received back from Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee copies number 1 and 2 of the statement by the DCI dated 25 February 1963, which was furnished to the Committee for their use.
